

Seaside High School

A New Tech Network School

Aaron Sanders
Principal

Tessa Brown
Assistant Principal

Andrew Aguiñiga
Assistant Principal

School-Parent Compact

The school distributes to parents and family members of Title I, Part A students, a school-parent compact (Compact). This Compact, which has been jointly developed with parents, outlines how parents, the entire school staff, and students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement. This Compact describes specific ways the school and families will partner to help children achieve the state's high academic standards. This Compact addresses the following legally required items, as well as other items suggested by parents and family members of Title I, Part A students:

- The school's responsibility to provide high-quality curriculum and instruction (ESSA Section 1116[d][1]).
- The ways parents and family members will be responsible for supporting their children's learning (ESSA Section 1116[d][1]).
- The importance of ongoing communication between parents and family members, and teachers through, at a minimum, annual parent-teacher conferences; frequent reports on student progress; access to staff; opportunities for parents and family members to volunteer and participate in their child's class; and opportunities to observe classroom activities (ESSA Section 1116[d][2]).
- Frequent reports to parents and family members on their children's progress (ESSA Section 1116[d][2][B]).
- Reasonable access to staff, opportunities for parents and family members to volunteer and participate in their child's class, and observation of classroom activities (ESSA Section 1116[d][2][C]).

The school engages Title I, Part A parents and family members to improve the achievement of their children in meaningful interactions with the school. This Compact supports a partnership among staff, parents and family members, and the community to improve student academic achievement. To help reach these goals, the school has established the following: 1 to 1 access for all students to technology and Echo (online LMS that lists to student work and grades), ELAC, School Site Council, Parent-Teacher conferences, after school programs and activities, back to school night, open house, coffee with the principal, Tier % meetings, Parent, family and college education outreach.

The school provides Title I, Part A parents and family members with assistance in understanding the state's academic content standards, assessments, and how to monitor and improve the achievement of their children (ESSA Section 1116[e][1]) through ELAC, School Site Council, Parent-Teacher conferences, back to school night, open house, coffee with the principal, Tier % meetings, Parent family and college application education outreach.

The school provides Title I, Part A parents and family members with materials and training to help them improve the achievement of their children (ESSA Section 1116[e][2]) through ELAC, School Site Council, Parent-Teacher conferences, after school programs and activities, back to school night, open house, coffee with the principal, Tier % meetings, Parent family and college application education outreach.

Seaside High School

A New Tech Network School

Aaron Sanders
Principal

Tessa Brown
Assistant Principal

Andrew Aguiñiga
Assistant Principal

With the assistance of Title I, Part A parents and family members, the school educates staff members in the value of parent and family member contributions, and how to work with parents and family members as equal partners (ESSA Section 1116[e][3]) through ELAC, school site council, parent volunteer opportunities, coffee with the principal, social media information/invitations and parent/community outreach.

The school coordinates and integrates the Title I, Part A parental involvement program with other programs, and conducts other activities, such as resource centers, to encourage and support parents and family members in more fully participating in the education of their children (ESSA Section 1116[e][4]) through ELAC, School Site Council, Parent teacher conferences, student/family education nights.

The school distributes information related to school and parent programs, meetings, and other activities to Title I, Part A parents and family members in a format and language that the parents and family members can understand (ESSA Section 1116[e][5]) through dual language correspondence on report cards and progress reports, utilizing parent square to communicate in multiple languages, website and social media, bilingual community liaison and school-parent compact.

The school provides support for parent and family member involvement activities requested by Title I, Part A parents and family members (ESSA Section 1116[e][14]) through ELAC, School Site Council, Parent-Teacher conferences, after school programs and activities, back to school night, open house, coffee with the principal, Tier 2 meetings, Parent, family and college education outreach.

The school provides opportunities for the participation of all Title I, Part A parents and family members, including those with limited English proficiency, disabilities, and migratory students; and that the information and school reports are provided in a format and language that parents and family members can understand (ESSA Section 1116[f]) through ELAC, school site council, parent compact, bilingual community liaison, parent, family and college education outreach.

This Compact was adopted by Seaside High School on June 20, 2020, and will be in effect for the 20-21 school year.

The school will distribute the Compact to all parents and family members of students participating in the Title I, Part A program on, or before August 1st, 2020

Aaron Sanders, Principal, Seaside High School
June 20, 2020

California Department of Education
July 2018